A Weekend of Tradition

Students Concerned With Vietnam Policy

National Moratorium Day drew crowds of students concerned over U.S. involvement in Vietnam. Students sat under the pines and listened to a different speaker every hour who discussed aspects of the war. Those attending were definitely united in their demand that it must stop.

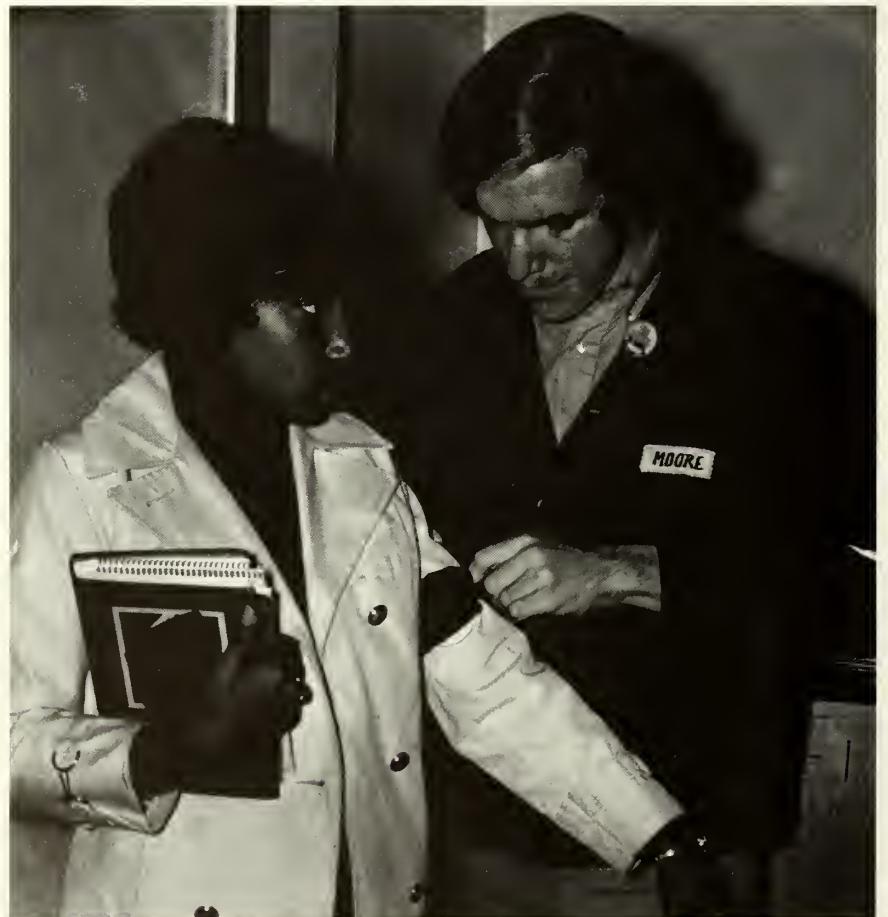

Again on November 15, students gathered in protest. A bell was rung once for every Texan who died in that small country in Eastern Asia. Later, students lighted candles beginning their silent march for peace.

Moratoriums were observed monthly on the SFA campus — each one offering a different program, all demanding U.S. troop withdrawal.

Greek Day

Each spring, SFA Greeks join in fun and competition in Greek Week activities. Beginning with a torchlight parade, the activities include an all Greek fashion show and talent competition. The week of fun climaxes with a series of competitive events that make up Greek Day. Games include a beauty pageant, a molasses-in-the-cup race, a key hunt, a chariot and three-legged race and a shaving cream fight. After the points are tallied, the victorious Greek groups are named. Delta Zeta won the 1970 sorority division award and Phi Delta Theta and Delta Sigma Phi tied for first place in the fraternity division.

Earth Day

SFA students observed the nation-wide Earth Day in April as evidence of their concern over pollution. To begin the activities, students and faculty heard a six-man panel discuss both local and national aspects of the pollution problem. Students gathered under the pines to hear such speakers as R. T. King of Texas Power and Light Company, Texas Senator Charles Wilson of Lufkin, Phillip Goodrum of the Department of Interior, V. V. Ramsey of the Harris County Commissioners Court, Richard Leard of the Texas Air Control Board and Harry German of Texas Farm Products. Highlighting the activities was U.S. Senator Ralph Yarborough. The Earth Day activities were coordinated and planned by the Sociology and Sylvans clubs.

Dr. Frank Lauderdale Professor and Dean of the School of Business

School of Business

The primary objective of the School of Business is to provide a well-rounded professional education for business. Courses and majors designed to meet this objective attempt to provide students with an opportunity to develop (1) a broad background of general business information, (2) an awareness of the social and economic forces shaping the future dimensions of business, (3) an appreciation of ethical and social values in business and (4) some competence in at least one field of business.

The School of Business, through the office of the dean, directs the guidance of students planning to major or minor in accounting, economics, general business, management and office administration.

Outstanding professor chosen is Miss Carolyn Knox.

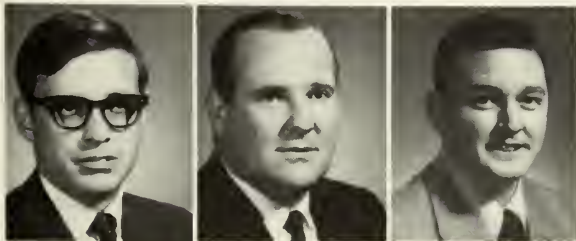

Dr. Charles W. Brown Professor and Head of Department of Economics

Department of Economics

The courses in economics seek to give students some conception of changing economic institutions and to contribute to the development of persons equipped to exercise their responsibilities as members of local, national and world communities. The study of economics is important to business and professional people because of the complexity of the highly specialized market economy within which they operate. In a political democracy where government plays a major role in influencing the economic system, the citizenship aspect of economics is important to all. Moreover, the study of economics can help students prepare for the difficult decisions that face the American family as a consuming unit.

A major in economics prepares a student for many interesting and rewarding careers. Among them are positions in banking and finance, marketing, manufacturing, international trade and government service.

Department of General Business

The expanding business and industrial life of East Texas provides a continual demand for well-trained business men and women. The department of General Business strives to meet some of this demand and attempts, by its broad general requirements, to give students opportunity for adequate preparation for business careers. The department seeks to equip students with (1) a broad background of general business information and an understanding of its meaning, (2) an appreciation of business principles and practices and the ability to apply them to everyday business problems and (3) a clear-cut sense of the social responsibility which rests upon the business employer and employee.

General business majors should meet the requirements for a Bachelor of Business Administration degree.

Department of Management

Our society is beginning to expect more from the business executive. Tomorrow's manager will have to have a new sense of responsibility toward his community and his employees. He will have to be an innovator and will be far more skillful than his predecessors. The primary objective of the management department, therefore, is to prepare the student for the leadership role. Through lectures, case histories and various advanced techniques, the student becomes involved in top-management policy making; he develops an understanding of philosophies and theories of successful businessmen; he learns about the science of decision making processes; he studies the modern executive development methods of small and large business firms; he acquires a knowledge of the direction and coordination of business functions; and he gains an insight into the dynamics of organized group effort.

Department of Home Economics

Home Economics is a field of study concerned with all aspects of family living, their interrelationships and the total patterns which they form. The emphasis it gives to the various areas of living is determined by the needs of individuals and families in the social environments of their times. Home economics draws its materials from its own research, from the arts and from the social, biological and physical sciences and applies these principles to improving the lives of families and individuals.

The objectives of the department, in keeping with the nature of home economics, are (1) the personal development of each student, (2) the preparation for home and family living, (3) the preparation for a profession and (4) service to the people of this area.

The program of professional education at the undergraduate level is based on a critical selection of the things a teacher should know and be able to do to teach the adolescent child in the secondary schools. Through the courses offered in the program, the department seeks to provide the student with basic concepts in the history and philosophy of education, the teacher-learning process, the nature of the adolescent learner and the planning and organizing for teaching and to provide laboratory experiences in teaching the secondary school student.

School of Fine Arts

The School of Fine Arts, through the office of the dean, directs the guidance of students planning to major or minor in the areas of art, music, speech, drama or speech pathology. The function is done through advising, scheduling, degree planning and final graduation plans. Also guidance is provided for students who wish to broaden their skills and understanding in these areas by electing courses and/or participating in activities.

Also the office of the Dean of Fine Arts seeks to promote and foster events in the performing arts which provide aesthetic growth of all students and help maintain a cultural climate in the university.

Outstanding professor chosen for the school is William Arscott.

Dr. William Turner Dean of the School of Fine Arts

Department of Art

The art curriculum has been designed to provide broad basic art foundations for the student who plans a professional career in art or art education. In addition to this two-fold purpose the Department of Art provides training in certain specialized fields especially designed for the non-art major. This training offers opportunities for the development of skills in art and aesthetic understanding in connection with major work in other departments.

A major in art must meet the requirements of a Bachelor of Science degree or a Bachelor of Arts degree. Students in these degree programs may qualify for high school teaching by completing a major in a second teaching field and the required education courses.

School of Liberal Arts

The main function of the School of Liberal Arts is academic. The courses in the school complement those in science and mathematics to form the base of a traditional collegiate education.

A secondary function of the school is administrative. The office of the dean helps any student to solve his problems within the regulations of the university. It supervises, for example, the advising of students who have chosen departmental majors within the school.

Included within the School of Liberal Arts are Bible, English, journalism, philosophy, geography, history, modern languages, political science, psychology and sociology.

Outstanding professors chosen for the school are Dr. Francis Abernethy and Dr. Richard Kim.

Offerings in Bible

Bible courses are offered by the Bible Chairs, which are college affiliated agencies operated by the Baptist, the Church of Christ, the Methodist and Roman Catholic churches.

The Bible Chairs have as their objectives: (1) to provide courses that will help students gain not only an understanding of the history and the literature of the Bible but also an insight into its nature and meaning; (2) to foster through the study of the Bible an appreciation of the spiritual values in human culture; and (3) to provide for the special needs of students preparing to enter church-related vocations.

Department of English, Journalism and Philosophy

The courses in English develop effective, appropriate use of English, present the literary heritage of English-speaking and other peoples and improve the understanding of practical and literary discourse. In language and literature, then, English supplies essential education for all students.

With its journalism emphasis, the department has two main functions: to prepare students for a career in journalism and to train future teachers of journalism. A subsidiary objective is to improve the writing of any student and to foster understanding of mass media.

Courses in philosophy are the most recent addition to the liberal arts program of the college. The department, then, is still readily growing toward new objectives. Coming into an existence of its own, philosophy seeks to provide intellectual breadth to all students.

Dr. Gerald Layd Callier Professor and Head of Department of Geography

Department of Geography

Geography seeks to define and study the patterns of physical and human features of the earth, the relationships between them, the association of features giving personality or character to individual places or regions, the connections and movements between places and the meaning to man of the likenesses and differences among places on the earth. Because it presents an integrated view of the physical and social sciences, geography is of significance to a liberal arts program whether the subject is selected as the major or minor or as an elective to enrich another field of inquiry.

The value of geographic training has been recognized by other scholars, commercial and industrial firms and governmental agencies. The number of jobs open to geographers has increased greatly.

Department of History

History is a study in the liberal arts. Life in a democratic society requires alert, civic-conscious citizens, who know and take pride in their country's past and who understand the problems that have confronted other nations; thus history enables an individual to become sensitive to the possibilities of the future.

History programs are designed to enable students to enter different careers. History has a particularly close relationship with the sciences and the arts, with business, politics, law, diplomacy, the ministry and with teaching.

The Department of Modern Languages recognizes three principle objectives: (1) to develop real competence in understanding, speaking, reading and writing a modern language; (2) to cultivate an appreciation for the culture and civilization of the people whose language is being studied and (3) to provide guidance for preparation for the various opportunities in language work.

The department offers majors and minors in French, German and Spanish.

Dr. Joe E. Ericson Professor and Head of Department of Political Science

Department of Political Science

The courses offered by the Department of Political Science are planned (1) for students who desire careers in law or in politics at the local, state or national level; (2) for prospective teachers of the social sciences to broaden and deepen their knowledge of the subjects they will teach and (3) for those students wishing to enter the civil service and desiring background and information about their field of work.

The undergraduate major program in sociology is designed to aid in providing pre-professional training in medicine, nursing, social work, law and ministry, as well as specialized training for teaching, governmental work, counseling, business, research, community planning and a variety of other occupations. An understanding of human relationships in liberal arts education is a prime concern in sociology, regardless of the student's field of concentration. With the assistance of his advisor in the department, the student may select a course of study to provide training for the variety of specialized occupations. In addition, sociology can serve as a foundation for graduate study in numerous fields.

School of Sciences and Mathematics

A primary aim of the School of Sciences and Mathematics is to contribute to the liberal education of all students through the presentation of fundamental concepts and methods of science and mathematics so that students gain a better understanding of the complex cultural patterns of the economic and social forces influencing their lives. Another function is to provide the fundamental education required for professional studies and careers of a scientific or mathematical nature.

The School of Sciences and Mathematics includes the departments of biology, chemistry, geology, mathematics and physics. It also provides pre-professional programs for students.

Outstanding professor for the school is Dr. Walter Robertson.

Dr. E. L. Miller Professor and Dean of the School of Sciences and Mathematics

Dr. Jacob A. Seaton Professor and Head of Department of Chemistry

Department of Chemistry

The objectives of the chemistry department are: (1) to prepare students for graduate study in chemistry; (2) to prepare students for positions in industry, government service and teaching; (3) to allow science students with non-chemistry majors to relate chemistry to their major science and (4) to acquaint non-science majors with the methods, concepts and achievements of the science of chemistry. It is hoped that an inquiring mind is stimulated in these courses and that the relationship of science to the other endeavors of man will be placed in its proper perspective.

Department of Military Science

The Department of Military Science offers courses designed to provide training and experience in the techniques of organizing, motivating and leading others. The purpose of the department is to develop qualified college men for positions of leadership both as officers in the Army Reserve and in their chosen career field. Successful completion of the four-year program enables the student who desires a career in the profession of arms to earn either a regular or reserve commission in the rank of U.S. Army Second Lieutenant. Equally important, it enables the man planning a non-military professional or business career to fulfill his federal military service obligation by serving as an officer and so benefit from the executive experience, salary and status of a rank commensurate with his education.

Department of Mathematics

The Department of Mathematics offers a four year curriculum for those students desiring to specialize in mathematics for the bachelor's degree and a one year terminal course for other liberal arts students. The department also provides courses to meet the needs of agriculture, business, economics, engineering, forestry and science and for those in the general education, pre-dental, pre-law and pre-medical curricula. It trains students preparing to teach both high school and elementary school mathematics. Graduate majors and minors leading to master's degrees are also available.

Physics is a science the goal of which is to understand and explain observed physical phenomena in a logical, uniform system of thought. The objectives of the department are several: to prepare students for further study or professional responsibilities in physics with industry or government; to provide students with the necessary physics background required for work in related sciences and medicine; to assist non-science majors in developing an insight into the physical aspects of their environment and the extensive scientific activity of our society.

The curriculum is designed to acquaint students with the general all-embracing principles which are the foundations of the present understanding in physics and to furnish experiences in lecture and laboratory which will develop scientific attitudes, insights and techniques.

Student Congress

Student Congress, acting as the governing body for SFA students, again attempted to pass progressive legislation but failed in their bid to abolish women's dormitory hours and the veto power of the dean of student life and to establish a pass-fail system for physical education. Legislation which was passed included abolishing sign-out sheets in dormitories, establishing a dorm council, creating a student publication board and initiating a pass-fail system. Under the supervision of Vice President Ben Bailey election codes were revised and the election policy for Homecoming Queen was changed. During the spring elections, referendum questions were presented to the students. With record votes cast, students voted 911 to 607 to withdraw troops in Vietnam; 1,286 to 383 to have an official dead week; 899 to 625 to give eighteen-year-olds the right to vote; and 607 to 169 to abolish curfew for upperclass women.

Pi Kappa Alpha

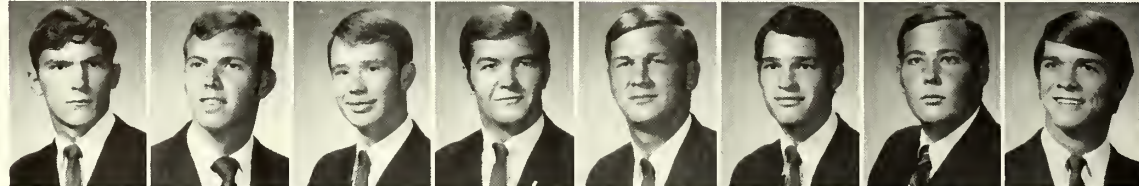

The "Pikes" at Stephen F. Austin enjoyed another successful year in all phases of fraternalism in 1969-70. The fraternity contributed to the community welfare by participating in the Annual Muscular Dystrophy Drive in Nacogdoches for the fourth consecutive year, playing the Lufkin State School in football and basketball and selling raffle tickets for the Nacogdoches Sheriff's Department new patrol boat. The Pikes won honors in intramurals by placing first in fraternity division basketball. Six members of the fraternity served as Student Congress representatives. David King won individual honor by being selected to the Little All-America Football team. The "Pikes" added to their full schedule by having parties and socials throughout the year.

Sigma Tau Gamma

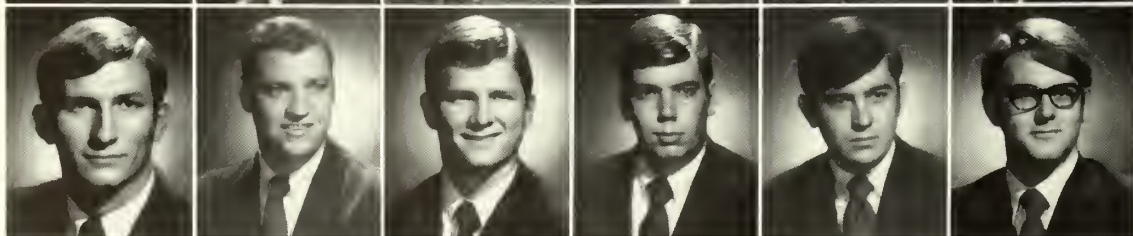

At the close of their first year at SFA, Sigma Tau Gamma boasted 44 members including spring pledges. Sports played an important part in the fraternity's activities and they captured third place in the softball league. The Sigma Taus co-sponsored an Easter egg hunt with Chi Omega for underprivileged children of the Nacogdoches area. The fraternity won third place in Greek Day activities. Socials included a Homecoming party, a Christmas formal and the White Rose Ball. Miss Panette Evers was named White Rose. The SFA Sigma Tau Gamma colony is the first colony in Texas and will be installed as an active chapter on the fraternity's fiftieth anniversary.

Theta Chi

Not only can Theta Chi boast of the highest grade point average among all social fraternities for the entire academic year, but also they again beat the Delta Sigs in the annual rope pull. Fraternity members helped with the renovations of Grace Bible Church, held a party at Lufkin State School and collected money for March of Dimes. During the year the Theta Chis held Suppressed Desire, Western, Homecoming and Roaring 20's parties and the annual Red and White Ball. During the Spring Semester the fraternity brought nine acres of land as a possible site for a future chapter house. Outstanding members included Duane Branch, Who's Who, and Reggie Bryan, cheerleader.

Lumberjacks . . . Almost Champions

1969 SFA Record

SFA 36- 7 Angelo State
SFA 35-37 NW Louisiana
SFA 28-19 Tarleton State
SFA 25-49 Texas A&I
SFA 34- 7 Sul Ross
SFA 45-21 Howard Payne
SFA 38-28 Sam Houston
SFA 42-24 SW Texas State
SFA 63- 9 McMurry
SFA 35-36 East Texas

SFA's Lumberjacks ended the 1969 campaign with one of the most successful seasons in school history, finishing with a 7-3 record and missing out on a share of the Lone Star Conference championship by only six seconds.

A frantic drive by East Texas State netted the Lions a touchdown and extra points with six ticks left to give ETSU a 36-35 victory over the Jacks in the season finale at Commerce.

Coach Travis "Shorty" Hughes' gridders had taken a 20-0 halftime lead but the Lions' five touchdown performance in the final two quarters spelled the difference. A Lumberjack victory would have given SFA a share of the LSC crown for the first time since 1935.

BOTTOM: Assistant Joe Richardson odds spirited support to the Lumberjacks from the sidelines.

BELOW: Stephen Clark is the last player to unpile after the Jack defense lowered the boom on a Howard Payne ball carrier. All LSC-All Texas end Dan McKeown displays the pass catching form that led him to record-breaking performances.

The Jacks opened the season with a romping 36-7 win against Angelo State University at San Angelo. Fullback Charles Lindsay led the SFA charge as the Lumberjacks jumped to a 30-0 first period lead and then coasted the rest of the way for the decisive win.

SFA traveled to Natchitoches, La. for its next encounter, falling to the Demons of Northwestern 37-35. Four fumbles, three interceptions and a blocked punt proved to be the Jacks' downfall.

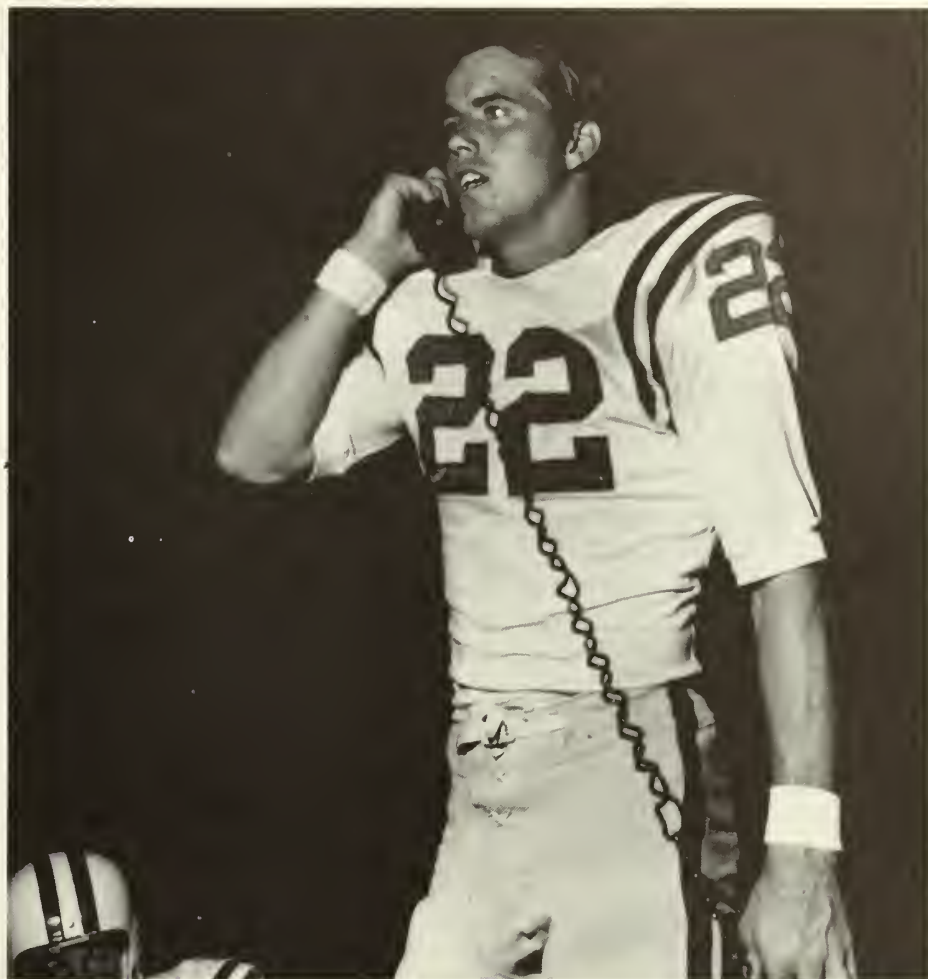

The game was not short of Lumberjack feats, however, as SFA claimed 423 yards total offense. End Danny McKeown also had a profitable night, catching six passes for 149 yards and three touchdowns.

SFA cheerleader Miss Patti Hogan had a confident smile as she watched the Lumberjacks in action. Defensive back Rayford Smith (44) kept close tabs on enemy receivers.

LEFT: All Texas end Ronnie Hawthorne pulls in another pass, this time in the wide-open spaces. BELOW: Freshman Cecil Newton gets advice from the press box. BOTTOM: A lumbering Texas A&I lineman closes in on Lumberjack halfback Maurice Mascorro.

ABOVE: Fullback Charles Lindsey rushes for the open spaces in SFA's Homecoming with Howard Payne. RIGHT: Two-time All-LSC and All-Texas end Ronnie Hawthorne takes a breather while the Jack defense does its thing.

SFA jumped back on the winning trail the following week as they took a 28-19 decision over the Tarleton State Texans in the Jacks' initial LSC contest.

Quarterback Robert Pearce scored twice, once on a 60-yard run, and Dennis Demel tossed an eight yard scoring strike to McKeown. Andy Hopkins added the final tally with a seven yard scamper.

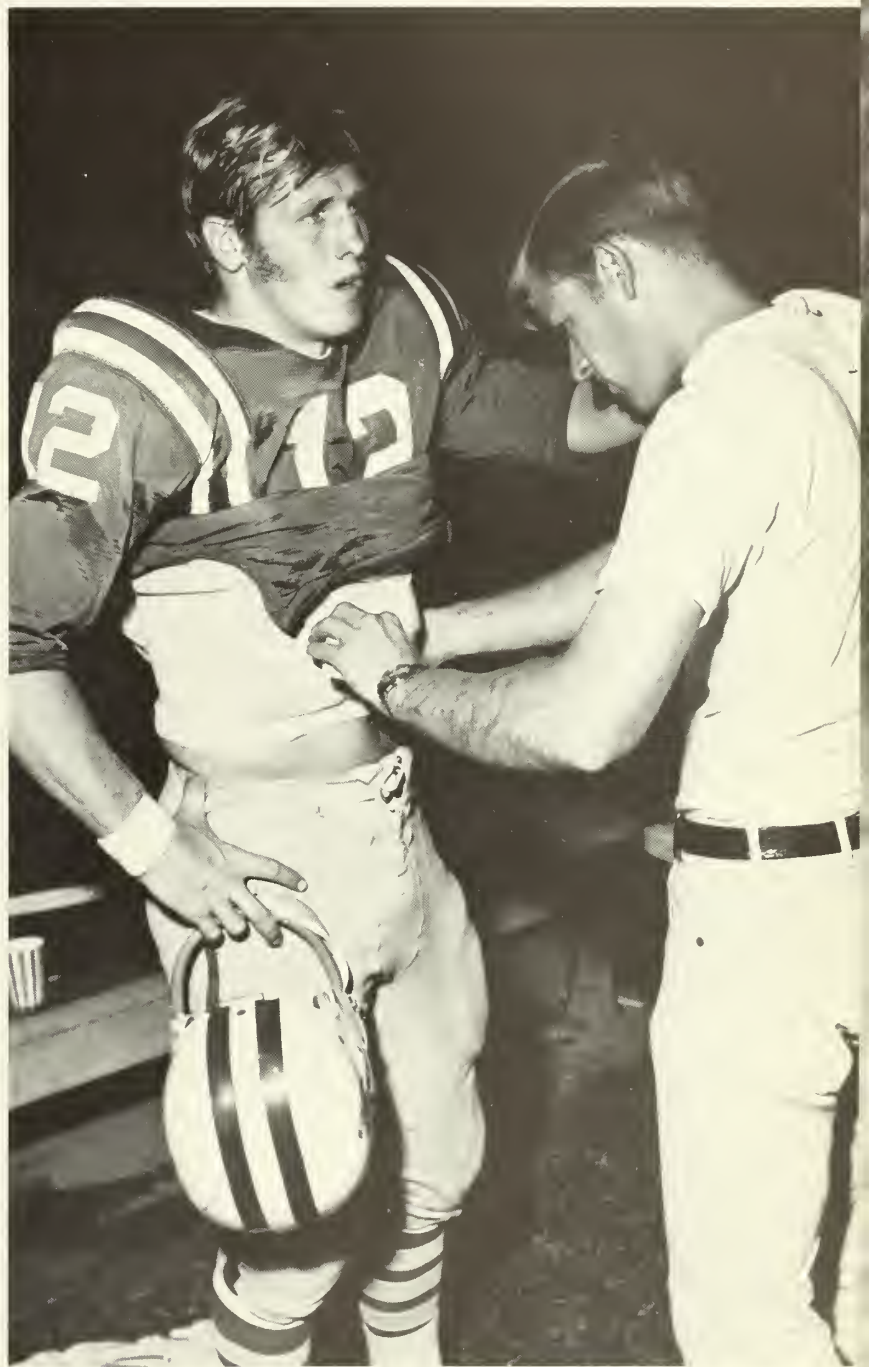

The Lumberjacks met Texas A&I, the number one small college team in the country, the following week and the result was a 49-25 Javelina victory.

Hopkins gained 170 yards, however, scoring two touchdowns along the way. Mark Mosely booted a 50 yard field goal, an LSC record, for another SFA bright spot.

LEFT: Hughes and his first assistant, Mart Crawford, concentrate on the intense grid action while Gordan Brawn gets directions from the pressbox. Linebacker Mike Fard receives last-minute instructions from Crawford and later, Hughes and his assistants get a chance to watch the strategy unfold. BELOW: David Minter, student trainer, also gets in the action as he prepares quarterback Pearce for duty.

The Jacks found their first loop win in Alpine, rocking the Sul Ross Lobos with a 34-7 decision. Freshman linebacker Sam Hunt was credited with 21 tackles as the Lumberjack defensive unit limited the Lobos to minus three yards rushing.

SFA's Homecoming game looked more like a track meet as the Jacks blasted Howard Payne, 45-21, before 12,000 fans. Pearce had 336 yards total offense, including an 18-of-30 passing effort for 298 yards.

RIGHT: A Howard Payne back breaks loose as Lumberjack linebacker Lubbie Whitmire gives chase. BOTTOM: SFA's rugged defense often caused personnel problems for the opposition as with this McMurry coach and trainer. BOTTOM RIGHT: Henry Malane finds an opening in the Javelina defense after catching a pass against Texas A&I.

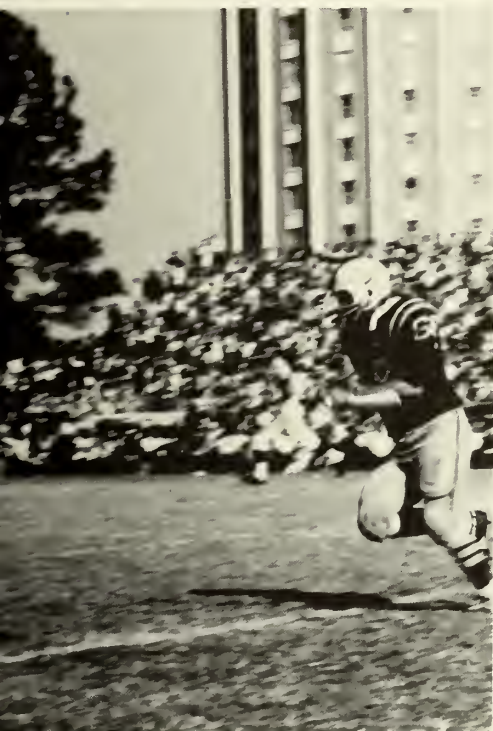

The Lumberjacks played spoiler at Sam Houston's homecoming in Huntsville the following week. Hopkins ran wild for 205 yards on 30 carries to lead the Axemen to a 38-28 conquest over the Bearkats.

SFA took its fourth straight game with a 42-24 romp over Southwest Texas, due largely to the record-breaking passing performance of Pearce.

The Hamlin senior threw three TD passes and hitting 27 of 44 attempts. SFA's total offense mark in the SWT game moved the Jacks into the top spot in that category among NAIA teams.

The powerful Lumberjacks boosted their national total offense lead the following week as they ran wild for 788 yards en route to a 63-9 win against McMurry's Indians. SFA had a 14-3 halftime lead but exploded in the final two quarters to score 35 and 14 points respectively. The win marked the Jacks' fifth straight and set the stage for the season-ending showdown against ETSU.

At season's end, the Lumberjacks claimed 45 LSC and school records.

Lumberjack Cagers Earn National Recognition

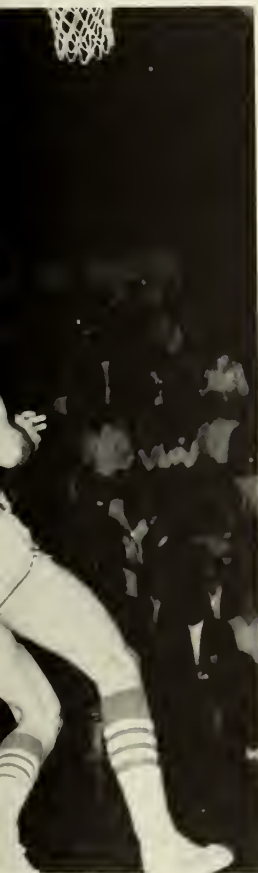

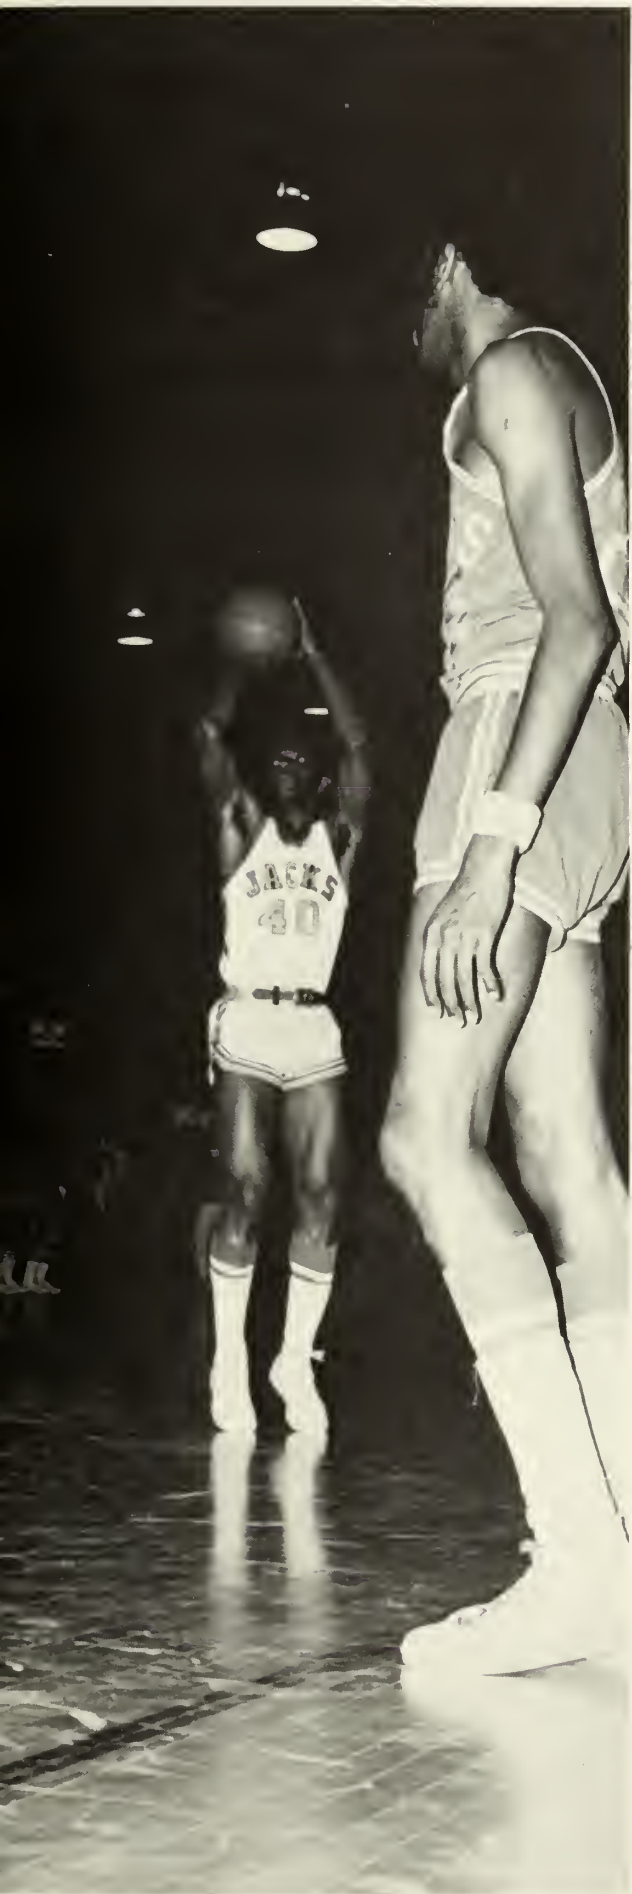

ABOVE: Following the first game of the NAIA District IV playoff against St. Mary's, George Jahnsen is carried from the court as fans proclaim that "We're No. 1." RIGHT: James Silas goes high for a shot to avoid the outstretched arms of St. Mary's Daug Williams. FAR RIGHT: Silas hits again from the field.

We're Number One . . . We're Number One. That became the chant of the SFA basketball fans in mid-January, lasting until the season's end. The Lumberjack cagers ended regular season play with a perfect 24-0 record and were ranked as the top team in the small college ranks by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA), the Associated Press and United Press International. The Jacks, however, were bounced from the NAIA tourney in the third round. SFA downed South Carolina 100-86 in the opening game and edged Augusta, Ga. 74-71 in the second match. The Lumberjacks were finally eliminated from the national tourney by the Guilford Quakers who beat them by a 100-94 margin.

When the Lumberjacks beat Southwest Texas State University in the Lone Star Conference finale, the SFA team sported the perfect slate to become the first team in the 37-year history of the loop to go undefeated. After winning the LSC scramble, SFA turned its attention to the District IV NAIA playoffs with St. Mary's of San Antonio. The Jacks nudged the Rattlers 84-83 in the first game which was played at Nacogdoches and 71-68 at San Antonio to sweep the series and advance to Kansas City for the NAIA tournament. The Lumberjack charge was paced all year by the "Super Six" — namely George Johnson, Surry Oliver, Marvin Polnick, Ervin Polnick, Harvey Huffstetler and James Silas.

The honors earned by the athletes ranged from All-American to LSC recognition. Silas, only a sophomore, was the most awarded Lumberjack as he was the lone SFA player to be named to the All-LSC first team. He was also named to the first team on the NAIA All-America squad and was a second teamer on the UPI team. Oliver, a 6-7 sharpshooter, was named to the AP All-America first team and was a second team selection on the UPI squad. He made the LSC second team, the fourth time he was chosen for a loop honor. He was drafted by Cleveland of the National Basketball Association in the third round and by the Indians in the American Basketball Association.

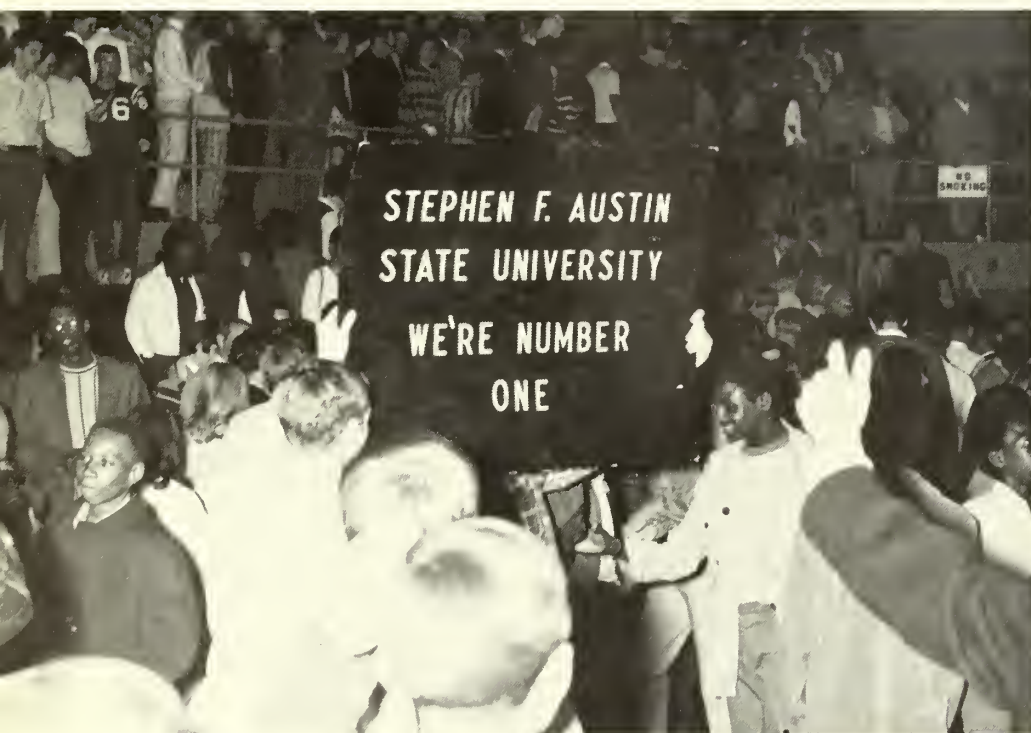

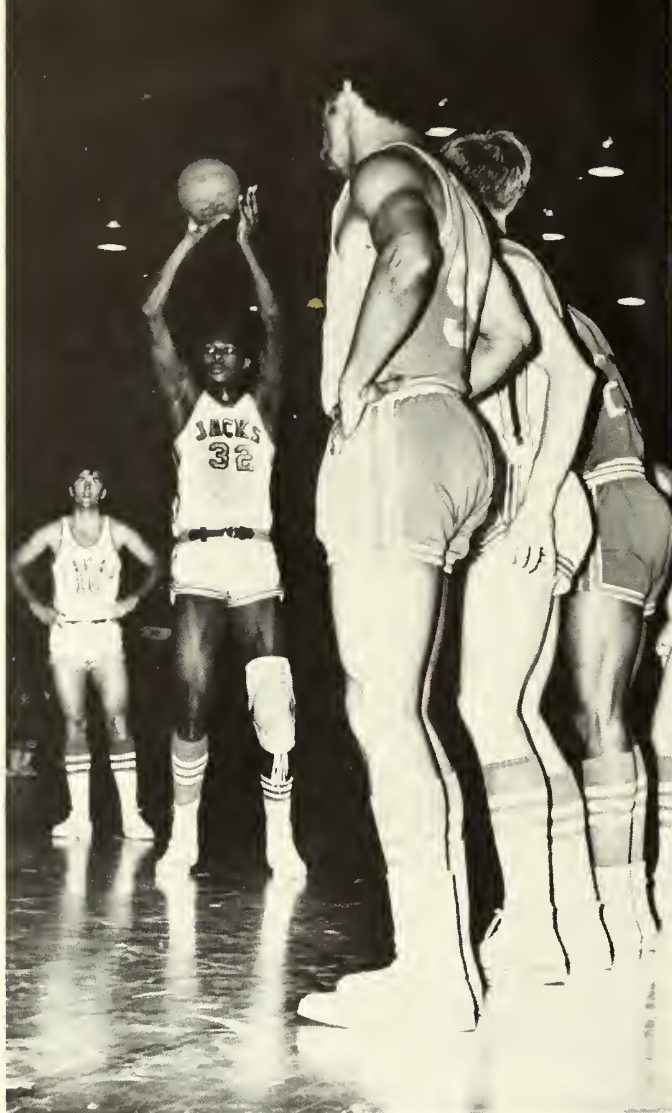

Johnson, who was hampered by a knee injury most of the season, failed to make any All-American first teams but was chosen as the No. 1 draft choice by the Baltimore Bullets. The seven-foot center, however, was named to the AP third team after being chosen on the NAIA squad last year.

Ervin Polnick was named to the NAIA and LSC second teams after scoring 393 points for a 13.1 average this season.

His brother, Marvin, was also a second team member on the All-LSC team. He hit for 315 points during regular season play for a 12.6 norm. Both are seniors from Sam Houston of Houston.

Ervin was drafted by Buffalo of the NBA in the fourth round and in the sixth round, Marvin was picked by Baltimore.

Huffstetler, who is rated as the best outside shooter on the team, was an honorable mention selection on the UPI team. He hit for 406 points during the regular season action for an average of 16.2 points per game. He is a junior and will be back to pace the Jack attack next year along with Silas.

Narvis Anderson, who played behind Johnson, was drafted in the seventh round by Cleveland and by Carolina of the ABA.

Under team records — both for single game and entire season — 20 of the 29 SFA records are now branded 1969-70, while only one of the 25 individual standards were revised this season.

The only individual record established this season was for single game field goal percentage. Ervin Polnick connected on 92.3 per cent of his shots (12 of 13) against Henderson State College in the opening game of the season.

The SFA tracksters totaled only 19 points for a seventh place finish in the Lone Star Conference track and field meet held at Alpine. Texas A&I won only two events, but piled up 55 points to edge Southwest Texas with 50 for the team trophy. The Lumberjack 440-yard relay team placed second with a clocking of 40.6. This team is made up of Bill Cramer, Charles McManus, Henry Malone and Andy Hopkins. Hopkins also placed second in the 100-yard dash with a time of 9.4 and third in the 220-yard dash with a clocking of 21.2. Malone finished fifth in the 100 as he recorded a 9.6. Mike Hudspeth captured fifth in the discus and John Walker was fourth in the mile run for the only other SFA points.

SFA Netters Second in Conference

Lumberjack netter Bobby Gaona won the singles title to lead the SFA tennis team to a second place finish in the Lone Star Conference tournament. Gaona defeated teammate Bill Gupton 6-4, 6-2 to take the top singles honor. East Texas State University won the team title by a 30-21 margin over SFA. Southwest Texas finished with six, and Angelo State and Sam Houston had three each.

SFA Golf

The SFA golf team finished fourth and Lumberjack linkster Rickey Maxey was the third best individual in the Lone Star Conference tournament. Southwest Texas State rolled to its third straight LSC team title by an 872 to 880 margin over runnerup Sul Ross. Angelo State was third at 895, followed by SFA with an 896 total. Mike Neace of Sul Ross shot even par rounds of 70-70-70 to earn medalist honors. John Roberts of Southwest Texas defeated Maxey in a sudden death playoff for runnerup to Neace. Both finished regulation play at 214.

Stephen F. Austin State College was established in 1921. Dr. Alton William Birdwell was named president when the college began operations September 18, 1923. He was succeeded in 1942 by Dr. Paul Lewis Boynton, who served as president until his death. Dr. Ralph Wright Steen then became president on November 1, 1958.

The college has steadily increased the number of its students, the variety of its curricula and the size of its physical plant. Its early enrollment of only a few hundred students has grown to more than 9,000.

To The Students of Today

It is invaluable that all men have their own beliefs which they are willing to uphold. It is even more important that men learn to respect the beliefs of others and accept all men, regardless of dress, language, ideals or length of hair for themselves
